10:00 AM SERVICE: “I Need You to Survive” Philippians 4:4-13

Our guest minister is George E. Oliver: BFA Theater, M.Div candidate, member of the Conference of Baptist Ministries of Massachusetts, founding director of Brown University’s Harmonizing Grace Gospel Choir, a playwright and director, performer on the Today Show.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION: Classes this week.

SERMON DISCUSSION: 11:15 AM, in the East Wing. Discuss the sermon and its relevance to our lives.

EVENTS THIS WEEK

YOUTH GROUP BOOK DRIVE: October 15, bring your books to church. The 3rd-6th graders will be collecting books that, along with books the youth group has been collecting, will be sold at a book sale after church on October 29. Half of the proceeds will be donated to the Youth Group Service Trip Fund, while the other half and all leftover books, will be donated to The Cape Cod Literacy Council to combat illiteracy.

BROWN BAG BOOK BUNCH: October 18, Noon. Come hear UUFF member Dr. Bob Reece talk about his new book, “Double Blind Double Cross.” Meet at Judy Alden’s, 46 Fox Run Lane, 508-540-2899.

ADULT EDUCATION: October 18, at 7:00 PM. Truth and Lies—How Do We Know What We Know? Donna Oglesby will look at the political protagonists, at home and abroad, whose political communication strategies are designed to take advantage of the media ecosystem, AI, BOTS and human psychology to advance their own interests.

YOUTH GROUP PUMPKIN SALE: October 22, after the service. The Youth Group will be selling pumpkins again this year after church. Proceeds will go to the Youth Group Service Trip Fund.

MEN’S BREAKFAST: Every Thursday, 8:00 AM. Fellowship, coffee, bagels and good conversation. All male members and friends of the UUFF are welcome. Information: Bob Sabin, 508-563-7685.

UPCOMING EVENTS

SUNDAY SERVICE: “A Larger Humanism” October 22, at 10:00 AM. A key part of our common heritage as a community is Humanism, a philosophy which (according to the American Humanist Association) “is a progressive philosophy of life that, without theism and other supernatural beliefs, affirms our ability and responsibility to lead ethical lives of personal fulfillment that aspire to the greater good of humanity.” In this service we’ll seek to center the voices of Black Humanists, and the ways they are challenging Humanism, and all of us, to embrace a larger and deeper human-centered vision. This service is being held in solidarity with hundreds of UU communities who are devoting services on this day to the dismantling of white supremacy in ourselves, our institutions, and our larger world.

JOIN THE WORLD UNITY CHOIR’S “INTRODUCTORY” SING-IN on Monday, October 23, 7-8 PM at UUFF in honor of United Nations Day. No prior singing experience is necessary. The songs are easy and mostly sung in unison. Help spread the word and invite anyone and everyone you know to come join in! Rehearse only once a month on Mondays, Nov. 13, Dec. 11, Jan. 8 at 7 PM & Sat., Jan. 13th at 1:30 PM prior to the 3 PM concert! We will perform The World Unity songs during Martin Luther King, Jr.’s birthday weekend at the grand “sing-in” concert Sat. Jan. 13, at 3 PM and at the UUFF service Sun. Jan. 14, at 10 AM. This event is being directed by singer/songwriter Dawna Hammers and sponsored by the UUFF’s Music Committee.

SEWING WITH PRIDE: Three volunteers needed to sew the new “around the meetinghouse” LGBT banner. We will meet Mondays, October 16 and 23 from 1:00 PM to 3:00 PM. Call Joan Carignan, 508-274-8259, to let her know you are interested. Bring: your portable sewing machine, a couple of empty bobbins, and scissors. Thread will be provided.

ADULT EDUCATION: October 25, at 7:00 PM. Income Inequality

World-class speaker Chuck Collins will talk to us about an overriding issue—income inequality. Chuck has agreed to answer the following questions: What is income inequality? How big is it and how do we know? Why should we care? What can we do about it?

INQUIRER’S SERIES CONTINUES: Sundays at 11:30 AM through November 12.

This series, which meets Sundays after the service, allows friends and members to drop in on sessions of their interest. The series continues with “Social Action and Community Service” on October 15 and “Worship and the Liturgical Year” on October 22.

A PLACE AT OUR TABLE FUNDRAISER: Sundays, December 3 and 10, after the service.

Many of us enjoy the dinners offered at our annual church auction and would like more opportunities to gather in small groups outside of committee work or Sunday morning fellowship. This year, we're going to offer a silent auction at coffee hour on December 3 and 10. If you would like to host a dinner or other event, contact Ellen Todd at ellen@jackson-todd or look for her at church most Sundays.

SOCIAL ACTION COMMITTEE NEEDS VOLUNTEERS: The Social Action Committee would like to invite volunteers from the congregation to help sell food cards on Sundays, either before or after the service or both. SAC also seeks volunteers to help sell Fair Trade coffee and chocolate more often on Sunday mornings. We also seek a volunteer to become the UUFF liaison to Round the Table, the program at St. Barnabas Episcopal Church that offers free luncheon meals three times a week. Any one interested in any of these volunteer roles, please see Julia Withers or email her at jmwithers6@gmail.com.

A NEW BOOK GROUP IS FORMING: Based on interest, the focus will be on the basic monthly themes of the worship service. We can choose the books or I have them as well. Contact Stephanie Simpson at ssimpson@macmaps.com.

Sandwich Road Menu brings you the latest news and highlights of upcoming events for the Unitarian Universalist Fellowship of Falmouth, Massachusetts. It is emailed each Friday and folded into the Order of Service on Sunday. Send submissions for all UUFF publications, including the Sandwich Road Menu, to announce@uuffm.org. The deadline for submissions to the Sandwich Road Menu is Noon on Wednesday.
